

Note from the Publisher (I)

We would like to inform our readers that, as of 1st July 1993, Dr. W.H. Utian has resigned from his position as joint Chief Editor of Maturitas. Elsevier Science Publishers has sadly accepted his resignation. We would like to extend our warmest gratitude to Dr. Utian for his many accomplishments over the last years to stimulate and improve the journal. Elsevier Science Publishers is very pleased to continue collaboration with Dr. Utian in his new function as President of the International Menopause Society.

Until Dr. Utian's successor is appointed, we kindly request that all manuscripts be submitted to Prof. Dr. H. Kopera, c/o Dept. of Pharmacology, University of Graz, A-8010 Graz, Austria.

Note from the Publisher (II)

Elsevier Science Publishers is happy to announce that, as of 22nd June 1993, Maturitas has become the official journal of the International Menopause Society, the society for the study of all aspects of the climacteric in men and women.

We expect that this strengthened alliance will be beneficial for both the scientific development of Maturitas and the International Menopause Society. Members of the Society are offered a reduced subscription rate to Maturitas.

Maturitas will continue to be published in collaboration with the International Health Foundation.
